MUSIC TO SING

MUNICIPAL LIBRARY

18:30 Collective singing workshop

Alex Sancher Oliveira will lead this small educational workshop, where we will explore singing in a different way and observe the origins of the habanera as a rhythm, as well as its importance as a shared identity marker between Europeans and Afro-descendants.

MUHAMED BEN CABEHA SQUARE

19:30 Alex Oliveira Quartet

Alex Sancher Oliveria will present a personal selection of Brazilian musical masterpieces, with vocal workshop attendees making a small contribution.

MUSIC IN THE SQUARE

PLAZA NUEVA

23:00 Bratia

The musical richness of the Balkans and the energy and elegance of gypsy jazz, united by the nomadism of the very art, create a unique proposal—a sound world, a brotherhood. As the Slavic origin of the name indicates... BRATIA.

01:00 Xaranga del Xubec

The band that inaugurated Iznajazz, back in its first edition in 2020, returns for what are probably the last concerts of their musical career. La Xaranga del Xubec is characterized by immersing the audience in the magic of music at all times, always with joy, humor, good music, and above all, improvisation: "We never give two shows the same."

02:30 Dj Habibi Seleкта

Habibi Seleкта is a selector, promoter, and researcher of new musical trends. For Iznajazz, he proposes a festive musical evening inspired by the lands, traditions, and peoples of the Balkans.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 30th

MUSIC IN THE STREET

CALLE REAL

17:30 Xaranga del Xubec

On Saturday, we will see the Xaranga del Xubec again, but this time in their natural habitat: the street. And with their eclectic repertoire, ranging from New Orleans jazz (with lots of swing) to klezmer music, and even music that transports you under a circus tent.

17:30 Romanos de Iznájar

Once again, "The Romans of Iznájar" will make us vibrate with the power of their percussion, from Calle Real to Plaza Nueva.

END OF THE PARTY

PLAZA NUEVA

18:30 Elsa Bohr

Elsa Bhör is performing at Iznajazz with a top-notch lineup of 11 musicians who will present their latest album, "El Sabor," a LP with 15 songs whose recording marked the culmination of an evolution process both sonically and conceptually.

Entry is free for all workshops and performances until capacity is reached.
